SECTION I

INTRODUCTION

Provincial Health Services Academy (PHSA)

Capacity building of the provincial health department in service delivery and governance of the health sector were the mainstay of the health sector reforms agenda in 1990s. To sustain the capacity building initiative the Provincial Health Development Centre (PHDC) was raised to the status of first ever Provincial Health Services Academy (PHSA) in Pakistan.

The public sector health professional teaching and training institutions meant for paramedics, nurses and LHVs along with District Health Development Center were attached to PHSA as its allied institutions. PHSA was given the status of an attached department and assigned the role of stewardship of this Network.

Provincial Health Services Academy has been assigned a mandate to conduct, among others, in-service trainings of the personnel of Health Department and serve as teaching and training hub through its Network for nurses, LHV's and Paramedics. A complex of 23 institutions thus formed included the PHSA, 06 District Health Development Centers (DHDCs), 10 Colleges of Nursing, 04 Paramedic Institutes, including the Post Graduate Paramedics Institute and 04 Public Health Schools of the province.

The vision for the institution is to become an internationally recognized Centre of Excellence in Public Health and Allied Health Professional teaching and training. The objective was to develop and implement training programs in different fields of public health, allied health professional training and to institutionalize health systems research.
